

TOM TOXIC & DIE POISON JERRYS

(by Kate Allvey for UK RnR)

TOM TOXIC & DIE POISON JERRYS serve up an explosive Rock'n'Roll cocktail full of Rockabilly and Psychobilly, with a shot of Blues-Rock, a dash of Country and the occasional pinch of Punk Rock. Think the best parts of the Stray Cats and Social Distortion, and you're halfway to imaging the shows that fans of Demented Are Go and Guana Batz have already experienced on their recent tours. Their captivating live set is made up of equal parts unconventionally interpreted cover songs and their cult-favourite originals, always with the necessary party- and sing-along guarantee. Their energetic bilingual shows have already thrilled audiences from Potsdam to Las Vegas, staying true to their motto:

'Rock'n'Roll und ab dafür!

Vocalist Tom Toxic holds the title of the only German to have been inducted into the International Rock-A-Billy Hall of Fame. He's been travelling through Rock'n'Roll since the early 90s, first as a member of The White Lines before celebrating his first little successes with Tom Toxic & the Trashcans. He's most famous as the frontman of Die Holstein Rockets and is now conquering the stages of the world with TOM TOXIC & the POISON JERRYS. A solo artist and poet, he's shared the stage with his son on lead guitar in the Tom Toxic Tollhaus Trio.

Slappin' Rockabee is probably the busiest double bass player in northern Germany. In addition to her roles in Stranger Cats and many others. Since 2018 she was responsible for the slapping rhythms behind the Die Holstein Rockets and after the band parted ways her musical collaboration with Tom Toxic continued. It's bound to be a party to remember with Slappin Rockabee onstage!

Just like Ms Rockabee the current drummer of TOM TOXIC & die POISON JERRYS, Is also usually spotted in Stranger Cats. Tobi (or not Tobi) is making up the other half of their rhythm section.

Mr Steve Crown might be better known as the face of his main project Pfeffer (Holstein) but in TOM TOXIC & DIE POISON JERRYS, he's the Gretsch-slinging lead guitarist responsible for the coolest licks in town.

Together, this supergroup quartet is unstoppable: pure good times with a healthy sense of humour. TOM TOXIC & DIE POISON JERRIES that's...

'Rock'n'Roll und ab dafür!
